Here's what most agents won't tell you — buying a home isn't a requirement. Renting isn't failure. You can still build wealth. The goal isn't to buy. The goal is to make the right decision — for you.

ANSWER THESE 5 QUESTIONS HONESTLY

1

Why do you actually want to buy a home — and is it your reason or someone else's?

- ☐ I can clearly articulate why I want to buy
- ☐ My reasons are mine — not pressure from others
- ☐ I'm thinking stability and long-term goals — not Instagram

2

Have you been pre-qualified or spoken to a loan professional?

- ☐ I've spoken to at least one loan professional
- ☐ I've been pre-qualified or pre-approved
- ☐ I understand what I qualify for and what my real monthly payment would look like

3

Do you understand the real cost of owning a home?

- ☐ I know the real cost — not just the mortgage payment — and that these costs can go up over time
- ☐ I've factored in ongoing costs like maintenance, repairs, and utilities
- ☐ I understand the difference between what a lender approves vs. what I should actually spend

4

Are you financially fit?

- ☐ I have my down payment, closing costs, and moving expenses covered, plus at least 6 months of total living expenses in reserves
- ☐ I won't be stretched thin after I buy

5

Do you know what you want and where you want it?

- ☐ I know the type of home I want to buy and the area I want to buy it in
- ☐ I know what those homes are actually selling for
- ☐ I'm confident I can afford a home like that in my target area

YOUR RESULT

Every unchecked box is your roadmap.

Each box you couldn't check is something to work on before you're ready to buy. Some are quick. Others take time. Now you know exactly where to focus.
